

The Good News

according to

Disney

Fairy tales are a fun and imaginative way to tell life-affirming stories to children and adults alike. Yet fairy tales are about so much more than magic and “happily ever after.” Fairy tales also deliver honest to life experiences that hit close to home in most people’s lives.

Fairy tales include the true-to-life choices that many of us are faced with in life. They show us how bad things often happen to good people, they present us with moral dilemmas and they often prompt us to examine our own consciences. They can help us answer many important questions, like “Am I making the best choices in life?”, “Am I a victim of life or am I choosing to be a victim?”, or “Who is responsible for my happiness?”

The Good News according to Disney will examine many of the moral and life-changing truths that are found in the canon of Walt Disney movies. Many of these truths are taken directly from Scripture and many of them contain psychological and emotional value for those of us who are faced with the ups and downs of 21st Century life.

This retreat begins with dinner on Friday evening and ends with dinner on Saturday.
