

Prodigal Love

Learning to Love Like God Does

Prodigal love is God's love: Lavish, unearned, unconditional, plentiful, eternal. It is a love that freely gives and asks for nothing in return. There are no expectations or strings tied to prodigal love.

Prodigal love enters the human heart when we are open to seeing beyond ourselves, beyond our own wants and needs. And it flourishes in the human heart when we are open to experiencing the brokenness of another person without judgment or condemnation.

Prodigal love blossoms inside us when we take the time to openly hear, understand and empathize with another person. Come learn to love others as God loves you.

This retreat begins with dinner on Friday evening and ends with dinner on Saturday.
